

THE NEXT STEP

Start with what it's worth.

Almost every decision about timing, tax and structure follows from that one number. Most owners have never had it put in front of them.

LIVE YOUR ONE BEST LIFE

Exit Planning for Business Owners · CEPA

For most owners the business isn’t part of the balance sheet — it is the balance sheet. Decades of work, most of the family’s wealth and much of your identity sit in a single illiquid asset you can convert to cash exactly once.

HOW WE WORK

BEFORE

Valuation and value-gap analysis, readiness, and the tax and estate work that only counts years out.

DURING

One seat accountable to your family, alongside your banker, M&A attorney and CPA.

AFTER

A plan for proceeds that now have to last permanently — and the Family CFO relationship that follows.

WHO THIS IS FOR

- Owners expecting to sell or transition within one to ten years
- Owners who have had an approach and don’t know what the business is worth
- Families where the business is most of the net worth, with no plan if something happens first
- Owners planning an internal transition to family, management or an ESOP

WHAT WE DO

WHAT’S INCLUDED

- Business valuation and value-gap assessment
- Entity and ownership structuring ahead of a deal
- Pre-sale trust and estate planning, while it still qualifies
- Key-employee retention and buy-sell review
- Deal structures modelled for what you actually net

THE CREDENTIAL BEHIND IT

As a Certified Exit Planning Advisor (CEPA) professional, Pierre Movsessian and our team are specially trained to help business owners build, protect, and ultimately realize the value of their business — aligning both personal and professional goals to support a successful transition and long-term financial independence.

ADVICE FOR LIFE — THE SAME FOUR STEPS, WHICHEVER DOOR YOU CAME THROUGH

01
Discovery
Before we crunch numbers we talk about what matters most to you — family, community, pastimes. Together we figure out where you are now.

03
Solutions
We recommend specific strategies aligned to each goal, across every area of your financial life, and implement the plan.

02
Planning
We assess where you stand against your goals and priorities, weigh the financial implications of each, and build the framework of a plan.

04
Monitoring
Life happens. Tracking keeps the plan on target, so we can anticipate change and adjust as circumstances do.

ONE OF FOUR — THE WHOLE CIRCLE IS AVAILABLE TO YOU

Nearly everything that determines what you keep is decided in the years before a buyer is in the room.
